Discoveries

church Tauplitz

The Tauplitz parish church is a Roman Catholic church in the town center and is dedicated to the Holy Cross. It was built in 1752 as a mission station against Protestantism. The church is freely accessible during the day.

The Tauscherin

A short but somewhat steep walk in Ausseerland, which rewards you with a fantastic panoramic view. From the Bad Aussee spa gardens, the route leads over the Gamsensteg footbridge and up steps to the Tauscherin, a popular vantage point with benches for resting. The way back leads along narrow lanes back to the starting point. Ideal for a short break with an experience of nature and far-reaching views.
